

Woodbridge Inn and Restaurant
44 Chambers Street, Jasper, GA
(706) 253-6293

For an elegant, old-fashioned evening of dining on excellent European cuisine, try the Woodbridge Inn and Restaurant. Owned and operated by the Rueffert family since 1976, this well-known landmark has been serving locals and out-of-town visitors for decades.

If you are undecided what to order, try one of the delicious German entrées... like sauerbraten, if you are lucky enough to find it on the menu that night. Start with the French Onion Soup, and the Veal Oscar is very good. For dessert there's crème brulee, bananas Foster, or lemon cream pie! And you'll find a full service bar with an extensive wine selection.

The Woodbridge Inn and Restaurant is open for dinner from 5-9 Tuesdays through Saturdays, with Sunday lunch served from 11 to 3.

Directions to Woodbridge Inn: South on Steve Tate to the roundabout, then West on Cove Road into Jasper. At the four-way stop light turn right on Main Street, and veer right after two blocks across the wooden railroad bridge onto Chambers St.
