

61 Main
61 Main Street, Jasper, GA
706-253-7289

In the short time she's been open, Executive Chef and Owner Jenna Schreiber of 61 Main has built an enviable reputation. She has developed excellent contacts with local ranchers and farmers, and offers delicious cuisine, which is also environmentally friendly. No wonder folks from all around Pickens County have made 61 Main their favorite restaurant.

Jenna's customers will tell you everything is good here, and it is all fresh, local, and wholesome. You'll feel good about supporting this local enterprise. If you can't decide what to order, try the short ribs... perhaps the most popular item on their excellent dinner menu. If you're hungry, try one of the soups as a starter; they're great!

61 Main is closed Sundays. Open Mondays for supper, Tuesdays and Wednesdays for lunch only, and Thursday through Saturday for breakfast, lunch, and dinner.

Directions to 61 Main: South on Steve Tate to the roundabout, then West on Cove Road into Jasper. At the four-way stop light turn right on Main Street and go north two blocks.
